

Michael's Kitchen Will be Your New Favorite Restaurant

There are many things that can make a restaurant your favorite dining place. Perhaps you search for ambiance or aesthetics in the place you choose to eat. Perhaps you are concerned with just how eco-friendly the businesses you eat at are. Maybe your love for great food surpasses all other distractions. Whatever your reason for dining out, Michael's Kitchen is sure to become your new favorite place to eat. You are sure to find whatever you are craving no matter what your taste when you walk into the newly remodeled, exceptionally clean restaurant. They are currently offering "summer specials" with a variety of salads, cold plates, burgers and more. If you are a sandwich lover, you are sure to find a favorite at Michael's Kitchen. And all the items on the diverse menu are reasonably priced, with daily specials as well. Owner Andy Kyprianides promises that their food is so delicious that "you'll never be disappointed."

Macomb Daily readers recently voted best soup, best coffee and best service to Michael's Kitchen – awards that they are proud to have earned for three years. There are always new dishes because the owner is inspired by the many diners that frequent his business. People's satisfaction and their reactions to his delectable food inspire him to constantly create new menu items. With most entrees under eight dollars, there's yet another reason to eat at Michael's Kitchen. All sandwiches come with a choice of soup or coleslaw. Michael's Kitchen boasts that they are the only restaurant around that serves all dinner entrees with soup and salad and dessert.

Michael's Kitchen is proud to be your green dining alternative. They use energy efficient light bulbs, and natural light whenever possible. They are green inside, and also green outside. Beauty is an important part of the dining experience, so before you enjoy your meal, stop to smell the flowers at the lovely flower garden that is meticulously maintained for patrons to enjoy. Andy would like to thank all of his loyal diners for thirty-two great years.

Your new favorite restaurant is located at 35481 Groesbeck in Clinton Township. They are open Monday-Saturday 6am-10pm and on Sunday from 7am-8pm. They can be reached at (586) 791-8690 or visit them online to print out a coupon for your next meal at www.visitmichaelskitchen.com.

